

Existing Boiler #1 prior to removal and replacement

Location of existing Boiler #1 following demolition

Installing new Boiler #1 unit

Work in progress
View of new Boiler #1 after final placement

Existing Boiler #2 and #3 prior to removal and replacement

Typical heat exchanger installation replacing the existing boilers

Typical attic mechanical room where new coils, motors and VFD's are installed

Coil installation in progress

Domestic water heat exchanger

Boiler piping activity in progress

Prepping to pour concrete pad for outdoor unit placement

Placement of new outdoor unit following pad completion

Finishing up the installation and final placement of the new outdoor unit

Installing remaining ductwork on outdoor unit

Completing the finishing touches prior to equipment start-up

Earthwork construction for installation of underground propane tank

Securing the jobsite at the end of the day following earthwork activities

Back of building prior to construction

View of the mechanical room entrance and hot water heaters prior to construction

Back of building after construction